PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

- 9/85 - 6/88 President of Weathers Reports Inc. Small medical software company offering several highly sophisticated psychological testing programs. Independent reviewers repeatedly voted one of these as the best available.
- 8/76 - Present Private practice. Assessment and treatment of children and adults, medical psychology.
- 7/77 - 7/78 Professor, Florida Mental Health Institute, and Director, Research and Evaluation Section. Supervised all aspects of three large innovative Residential and Community Research and Dissemination Projects for Adults: The Adult Alternatives to Hospitalization Project and the Early Intervention Project mentioned above. The third project was the development of a statewide forensics evaluation and training program. These treatment programs were systematically disseminated states wide as they were developed. Combined, the two projects represented 96 residential beds, about 100 staff, 7 of which were Ph.D.'s.
- 2/76 - 6/77 Assistant Professor, Florida Mental Health Institute. Interim Project Director of the 16-bed residential Adolescent Project (concurrent with other responsibilities).
- 11/75 - 6/77 Assistant Professor, Florida Mental Health Institute. Project Director of the Early Intervention Project, which is an innovative research project for first hospitalization adults. It encompasses a 32-bed residential unit, an intensive follow-up program, a research staff, and a statewide dissemination program. I supervised 44 staff, including three Ph.D. psychologists and an effective treatment approaches based on simulation, gaming and peer management have developed, researched and disseminated statewide.
- 7/75 - 12/75 Part-time Instructor, Hillsboro Community College, Tampa, Florida. I taught the Psychology of Adjustment, and experiential cognitive survey of the "growth psychologies," twice.
- 3/75 - 11/75 Assistant Professor, Florida Mental Health Institute. Associate Project Director of the 32-bed Fairweather "Small Group" residential research treatment unit of the Alternatives to Hospitalization Project. This is an innovative peer management program for chronic adult mental patients.
- 1/75 - 3/75 Adjunct Faculty, Department of Special Education. Florida International University, Miami, Florida. Supervised ten masters level practicum students.
- 5/74 - 3/75 Director, Alpha House Day Treatment Program. Dade County Youth Services. Developed a behavior modification based day treatment program for 21 children -- from 8-12 years old with learning and behavior disabilities. A major emphasis was on parent training and community interventions.
- 8/73 - 2/74 Director, Adolescent Unit, Central State Psychiatric Hospital, Nashville, Tennessee Reorganized a 22-bed inpatient adolescent program from a traditional psychiatric model to Re-Ed and Behavior Modification oriented. I also secured a grant and supervised an interdisciplinary staff of 33.
- 9/71 - 8/72 Program Coordinator, Adolescent Research Program, Camarillo-Neuropsychiatric Institute Research Program, Camarillo, California. Developed and tested a behavior modification community-based intervention system for drug abusing adolescents who demonstrated functional learning disabilities and behavior problems.
